

Attention City of Rockford Citizens!

- ⇒ Do you live within the city of Rockford and need assistance making repairs to your home?
OR
- ⇒ Do you need to make your home more accessible for a family member who is elderly or has a physical disability?
OR
- ⇒ Do you need work done to your home, but you do not have the equity to get a mortgage loan from the bank?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, the City of Rockford Community & Economic Development Department may be able to help.

The FOCUS AREA REHABILITATION PROGRAM provides up to $40,000 to cover construction costs to complete electrical, mechanical, plumbing, and exterior repairs such as a roof or siding. Also, accessibility modifications may be made for persons with disabilities.

FINANCING OPTIONS: Money is provided through real estate mortgage loans. The 1st $25,000 (plus program fees) is a 5 year forgivable mortgage loan. Up to $15,000 is a repayable mortgage loan. Payment is due when ownership changes voluntarily or involuntarily (the property is sold, foreclosed, etc.).
