ARREST RELEASE

On Thursday, 01/22/2015, Patrol Officers and M3 Street Team Officers from the Rockford Police Department responded to the area of School Street and Kilburn Avenue in reference to an Attempted Armed Robbery to a citizen. When they arrived officers met with the victim, who reported that a Black Male suspect had confronted him at gunpoint and demanded money. When the victim, who is homeless, refused a struggle ensued and the suspect fled on foot.

While checking the area officers located a subject, later identified as Quentin L.D. Hanson near the area of Rockton Avenue and Ashland Avenue. Hanson was taken into custody after a brief foot chase and a handgun, believed to have been used during the incident, was recovered from the scene.

Hanson was subsequently arrested and lodged in the Winnebago County Jail.

ARRESTED: Quentin L.D. Hanson B/M 22 years old Bolingbrook, Il.

CHARGES: Attempted Armed Robbery / Aggravated Unlawful Use of Weapons by a Gang Member / Resisting Police / No F.O.I.D.

The charges against Hanson are merely accusations and not evidence of his guilt. Hanson is presumed innocent unless proven guilty in court.
