ARREST RELEASE

The Rockford Narcotics Unit received information that an individual was involved with selling cannabis from his detached garage at 106 N. Henrietta. The detectives were familiar with this individual from prior police contact and knew his identity to be Norman Braddix. The detectives began an investigation and it concluded with executing a search warrant at the location on 09/17/14. Six adult males were located inside the garage, including Braddix. During the search detectives located over 95 gross grams of cannabis that was packaged for individual sale. Braddix and another individual that we identified as Jay Macklin, were arrested and lodged in the Winnebago County Jail.

Arrested: Braddix, Norman Jr. 65 years old, Rockford

Charges: Possession with intent to deliver cannabis

Bond: $5,000

Arrested: Macklin, Jay L. 52 years old, Rockford

Charge: Possession of cannabis

Bond: Macklin has bonded out and is no longer in custody

Braddix and Macklin are presumed innocent unless convicted in a court of law.
