ARREST RELEASE

On June 8, 2016 at 7:40 pm Rockford Police Officers responded to Miller Machine, 310 Peoples Avenue in reference to a burglary suspect who was in custody. The owner of Miller Machines and his son were inside the business due to recent burglaries. They observed Robert Rees walk around the building and enter through a rear window. They detained Rees and called 911.

Officers arrived on scene and took Rees into custody without incident.

Arrested:

Robert Rees, 51 years old Rockford resident.

Charges:

Burglary

IDOC Parole Violation warrant for Burglary

The charges against Rees are accusations and he is presumed innocent until proven guilty.
