ARREST RELEASE

ROCKFORD, ILL. – On Tuesday, July 26, 2016 at 7:32 am Rockford Police Officers responded to the 300 block of South Alpine Road for a residential burglary in progress. A female homeowner arrived home and found a rear door with forced entry. She called 911 and her husband, who returned home. Just prior to police arrival the husband arrived home and encountered a male suspect in the residence at the rear door. The suspect escaped the house and was pursued by arriving offices. Officers were able to capture the suspect who was identified as Dylan Theisen.

While investigating this incident several area residents discovered that their vehicles had been burglarized. Evidence linking these incidents to Theisen was discovered.

Arrested:

Dylan Theisen, male 30 years of age, Rockford resident

Charges:

- Residential Burglary
- Attempt Burglary to Motor Vehicle
- Possession of Stolen Property
- Resisting Arrest
