ARREST RELEASE

On January 21, 2015, at approximately 2:22 am, Rockford Police Officers responded to Discount Tobacco and Pantry located at 615 South Rockford Avenue in response to a business alarm. While conducting this investigation officers obtained suspect descriptions of the persons whom had attempted to gain entry into the business and relayed this information to other officers. During the course of obtaining this information, Rockford Police received another business alarm at Culture Shock located at 2239 Charles Street and also initiated an investigation determining that the suspect descriptions were similar to those of Discount Tobacco and Pantry. Officers checking the area located three individuals matching the suspect descriptions. Upon conclusion of these investigations the following arrests were made and charges were issued:

Manuel A Loreda, 20 years of age, Rockford Illinois - 2 Counts of Attempted Burglary

Jessee C Darby, 19 years of age, Rockford Illinois - 2 Counts of Attempted Burglary

Ryan C Carmona, 20 years of age, Rockford Illinois - 2 Counts of Attempted Burglary

Charges are merely accusations and all parties should be considered innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
