MESSAGE

On 10/24/13 at 7:54 AM Rockford Police Patrol Officers responded to 2224 Hancock St. #2N to assist an Illinois Department of Corrections Parole Agent with a parolee check.

The Parole Agent advised officers that he was checking on parolee Albert Scott who was on an electronic monitoring ankle bracelet and the bracelet indicated that Scott was present at the apartment but no one was answering the door.

Officers were able to get Scott to answer the door and he allowed the Parole Agent and Officers inside the apartment. The Parole Agent conducted a search of the apartment pursuant to Scott's Mandatory Supervised Release agreement. The Parole Agent located 12 grams of heroin, 40 grams of cocaine, drug packaging materials and $2,250 in United States Currency.

Charged:

Albert F. Scott born 07/14/83, 2224 Hancock St, Apt #2N

- Violation of the Controlled Substance Act-Possession of heroin with intent to deliver
- Violation of the Controlled Substance Act-Possession of cocaine with the intent to deliver
- Possession of drug paraphernalia

The Illinois Department of Corrections issued a Parole Violation Warrant for Scott and he was lodged in the Winnebago County Jail without bond.

Albert Scott is on parole for Violation of the Illinois Controlled Substance Act.

A photo of Scott is attached.

The charges against Scott are allegations and he is presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
