CITY URGES RESIDENTS AND BUSINESSES TO BE AWARE OF POTENTIAL ENERGY SUPPLY SCAMS

ROCKFORD – The City of Rockford is alerting residents and small businesses to be aware of alternative energy suppliers misrepresenting themselves as the City’s awarded energy supplier or stating that they are working on behalf of the City of Rockford.

FirstEnergy Solutions, the City’s awarded energy supplier, has communicated on behalf of the City by mail with eligible residents and small businesses, but does not solicit door-to-door or call customers directly. It is very important to remember that FirstEnergy Solutions does not need to review copies of electric bills to sign up eligible customers.

The City of Rockford urges residents and businesses not already signed up with the City’s aggregation supplier to carefully review terms of any agreement offered by an alternate supplier before signing up for service.

Citizens with questions or concerns may call Carrie Eklund at 815-987-5565.
