Narrative

The Rockford Fire Department responded to a residential structure fire. The first fire suppression unit on the scene reported light smoke from the attack and attacked a small fire on the exterior at the rear of the house with a hose line. The fire was quickly brought under control and was extinguished with minimal damage to the structure. At the time of the incident there was one occupant inside this home who needed assistance out of the structure. There were no injuries to civilians or firefighters reported. The cause of the fire was determined to be electrical in nature.
