INFORMTION RELEASE

ROCKFORD, ILL. – On July 12, 2016 just before 4:00pm Rockford Police officers responded to the Harvard State Bank at 2470 Eastrock Drive for an attempted robbery.

Employees were working inside the bank when an employee observed three subjects walk up to the bank from the northwest, wearing masks and with their faces covered. The bank employee hurried over to the entry door and locked it. Seconds later two subjects wearing a hoodie pulled tight over their faces and the other wearing a mask, walked up to the door and were unable to gain entry. Once they were unable to gain entry they ran to the northwest. Bank employees immediately contacted the police.

Suspect #1 was described as a black male, late teens to early 20s, 5'11" tall, 210 pounds, wearing shorts, a dark colored hooded sweatshirt, white gloves and a white clown mask.

Suspect #2 was described as a black male, wearing a dark colored hooded sweatshirt (with the hood pulled over his face, a black mask (with bluish color streaks outlining the contours, 5'10"-6'0" tall, 160-170 pounds.

Suspect #3 was described as an unknown race male, with a black colored hooded sweatshirt pulled over his face, 5'10"-6'0" tall, 160-170 pounds.

The Bank advised that on July 11, 2016 two black males were in the bank acting suspiciously and the Rockford Police Department would like to identify and speak with these males. Surveillance photos of the two males on July 11, 2016 are attached to this press release.

Anyone with information about this incident is asked to call Winnebago County Crime Stoppers or the Rockford Police.
