INFORMATION RELEASE

MURDER INVESTIGATION UPDATE

Rockford Police Detectives, Illinois State Police Investigators and members of the Winnebago County Violent Crimes Task Force have been following up on leads related to the quadruple homicide that occurred on December 20, 2014 at 3234 Montrose.

Following up on those leads Detectives searched several residences in Rockford and recovered evidence and a handgun. The evidence and handgun will be examined by Rockford Police crime scene Detectives and the Illinois State Police Crime lab. No arrests have been made at this time but Detectives are continuing to interview known associates and those who have information of the activities of the victims.

The community is encouraged to continue to provide information to the Rockford Police Department or Crime Stoppers so the person(s) responsible for this crime can be brought to justice.
