MESSAGE

On Saturday morning September 21st, 2013 at approximately 2:17 a.m. Rockford Police Officers were sent to the Mobil Gas Station at 1344 E. State Street for a report of gunshots fired. Officers were also sent to Swedish American Hospital for a shooting victim. Officers learned that two men had a verbal confrontation inside the gas station. The confrontation continued outside where shots were fired and one of the men was struck at least once. The victim in this case was brought to the hospital by his friends where he is suffering from life threatening wounds.

Rockford Police Detectives are investigating the incident. Anyone with information on this incident is urged to call the Rockford Police Department or Crimestoppers.
