ARREST RELEASE

On October 20th, the Rockford Police Department received information indicating that Robert Brooks had made threats to harm The Honorable Judge Ronald White, Circuit Judge of the 17th Judicial Circuit. Upon receiving this information an investigation was conducted that was reviewed by the Winnebago County States Attorney's Office. An arrest warrant was then issued for the following charges and Robert Brooks was taken into custody at his home without incident and lodged in the Winnebago County Jail in lieu of bond.

Robert I Brooks, 47 years of age, Rockford Illinois

Threatening a Public Official

The charges against Robert Brooks are merely accusations and he should be considered innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
