Incident: Child sex offender compliance checks

MESSAGE

On Wednesday October 26th, 2011 "Operation Safe Treat" was conducted in the City of Rockford. The operation was a joint effort including the Rockford Police Department's Investigative Services Bureau, Community Services Unit and M-3 Streets Team, Illinois State Police Zone 2 Investigations, Winnebago County States Attorney's Office, Illinois Attorney General's Office and the US Marshal's Office. The operation entailed conducting compliance checks on child sex offenders with a special emphasis on those offenders who were on probation or parole. During the operation, two hundred thirty one offenders were checked for compliance, including forty six offenders who were on probation or parole. All of the offenders checked were complaint with the Child Sex Offender registration requirements.
